

Removing the "established business relationship" qualification from the fax regulations would impart an onerous responsibility on the association and convention & visitor bureau communities at a time when resources are already contracting due to economic pressures. The association community, through the American Society of Association Executives, has already raised numerous concerns, which I urge you to give due consideration and act upon.